

What's Appropriate in Sunday School?

For Teachers of Pre-School through Senior High

What do you think? After each question, write a number (0,1,2,3,4,5) that signifies the appropriateness of each activity. The scale is 0 = never appropriate and 5 =always appropriate.

1. The 4th grade teachers hold a Sunday noon picnic for their class at the city park.
2. A male teacher of 5th grade boys invites two students to go to a movie.
3. A teacher offers a "blessing" to each student by placing her hands on the child's shoulder.
4. A teacher insists that all students in the 2nd grade class hold hands during prayer.
5. The high school youth group offers free babysitting while parents go out. Present are: one adult sponsor, four youth and fifteen children, age 1-8.
6. A teacher invites one child or one youth over to his/her home.
7. As the children leave the classroom, a teacher waits by the door to give them each a hug.
8. Your church education committee gladly accepts all offers of anyone who is willing to teach. After all - you are desperate! 😊
9. During a 6th grade class party, all the lights in the church are turned off and teachers and students play hide and go seek in the church.
10. A Sunday school teacher (any age group) holds class at his/her house on the spur of the moment. Parents have no advance notice.
