Featured Speaker

Tammy Duvanel Unruh is a communications professor at Hutchinson Community College and a tutor for at-risk young men at Youth Horizons in Wichita. Tammy lives with her husband, Mark, and they have two sons--one in high school and one in college.

During our sessions, we'll spend some time talking about faith and growth - how we can start to grab hold of the notion that John the Baptist spoke of when he said, "Jesus must increase and I must decrease."

We will also talk about faith and questioning - how we can start to grab hold of the notion of Peter's willingness to get out of the boat and walk on the water.

Finally we'll talk about faith and eternity - how we can start to grab hold of the notion that Paul spoke of when he said, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Select seminars by writing the corresponding letter in the blanks on the registration form. Space in seminars may be limited; those who register first will have top choice of seminars.
