

Featured Speaker: Kathy Neufeld Dunn

Kathy Neufeld Dunn is the WDC Associate Conference Minister (KS-based) supporting pastors and congregations in the region. She coordinates and leads trainings for pastors and congregations in our district and beyond. She is also a mediator, mediation trainer and large group facilitator. She and her husband, Michael, share their home in McPherson with three cats. She's better at training people than cats!

Worship Team: Stephanie Gehring, Gayle Graber, Carla Stucky

Ages 13 and older are welcome to attend.

Amy Warner will offer 1:1 Spiritual Direction; sign up at camp.

Retreat Offering will go to Camp Mennoscah to support their ministries. Offering will be received on Sunday morning. Please make checks out to Camp Mennoscah.

NEW THIS YEAR: A non-refundable $15 program fee

Cancellations made after noon on Friday, September 10 are non-refundable.

Things to note this year:

-- Some things will look different. Shocking, we know. The schedule has changed as well as the number of seminars offered. Snacks will not be provided as usual so please plan to bring extra to satisfy those cravings (we imagine most of us bring enough to feed 5 people anyway....)

-- Please bring masks. Covid protocols will be followed, and certain decisions will be made closer to or at retreat time as numbers dictate. We strongly encourage you to be fully vaccinated before you come. And flexible.

-- What didn't change? The views, the river, the walking paths, the presence of God, the spirit of fellowship, the chance to RECONNECT!

Afternoon Seminars

Identify your choice of seminars by writing the corresponding letters in the blanks on the registration form. If your first choice does not work for some reason, we will put you in the second choice you selected.

A. Bible Study Lynn Schlosser
Lynn is a daughter, wife and mother, a Mennonite pastor, a lifelong seeker of Truth and a grateful beneficiary of God's great grace and love. She enjoys spending time outside walking, pulling weeds in the garden and is just beginning to contemplate/anticipate/grieve the advent of the "empty nest" as her son begins his college career at K-State this fall and her daughter embarks on her senior year of high school. Lynn and family make their home in Moundridge. She is currently the interim pastor at Mennonite Church of the Servant in Wichita, Kansas.

B. Book Reviews Bethany Martin
Listen to Bethany's fabulous book reviews for all ages.

C. Yoga Donna Froese
This session will be a typical class in traditional yoga. Donna will guide you into poses, mindful breathing, and deep relaxation. This class is safe for all participants, whatever your physical condition, mental state, or spiritual awareness. You must be vaccinated to attend and there will be limited spots available.

D. Communications/Regrouping Activities Tammy Duvanel Unruh
This will be an interactive time together looking at ways to regroup and reconnect.

E. Craft project – Card making ($4 per person) Kristin Kaufman
Kristin works in the Student Success department at Hesston College. In her free time, she loves crafting and creating products for her business, The Crafty K, playing games, and spending time with friends and family.

F. Free Time Sleep, walk, read, pray, do whatever YOU want to do!

Your Retreat Committee: Tammy Duvanel Unruh, Rhonda Toews Moore, Jill Litwiller, Karen Mascho, Charlotte Warkentine, Carla Stucky Saturday supper by Keith Banman – Please consider signing up to help serve and clean up.
